

Eurotech wins the Internet of Things Award for the Most Innovative Platform Solution during the World Communication Awards Ceremony in London

Everyware Cloud™ honored for the Most Innovative Platform Solution

Amaro, ITALY – December 3rd, 2015 – Eurotech, a leading provider of embedded systems, Machine-to-Machine (M2M) platforms and Internet of Things (IoT) solutions, today announced that Everyware Cloud – Eurotech's device and data management platform –received from Total Telecom the IoT Award for the Most Innovative Platform Solution.

The Internet of Things Awards is the first major program to recognize innovation and excellence within the IoT ecosystem. The award from Total Telecom is a recognition of a clear evidence of innovation and a plan for sustainable success. The awards were open to the entire spectrum of companies involved in IoT, and the categories have been selected to recognize the impact on the individual and the wider impact on society.

“This award is a recognition of Eurotech comprehensive IoT proposition”, said Giuseppe Surace, Eurotech's Chief Product Officer. “Eurotech will continue to stay focused on providing companies with the best in class tools and technology essential to make their products IoT enabled. This award reinforces the belief that our vision and investment to continue to be innovators were correct and is a further confirmation of our leadership in the world of IoT.”
