

Eurotech: Changes in the Group Operating Structure

Amaro (Italy), March 31st, 2017 – Eurotech, a long-time leading provider of embedded systems for demanding applications and a global leader in Internet of Things (IoT) enablement, announces two changes in the operating structure of the Group which are effective as of today.

Larry Wall leaves his role as Chief Executive Officer at Eurotech Inc.. The leadership of the American subsidiary of the Group is taken by Roberto Siagri in his quality of Executive Chairman of Eurotech Inc., following a model of direct coordination by the parent company.

Fabio Gallo leaves Eurotech and its role of General Manager of the HPC business unit is taken by Luca Degano, who already held the position of Sales Manager of the same unit.

Eurotech thanks Larry Wall and Fabio Gallo for the work done during these years.

From Eurotech Inc. office in Columbia (MD) Eurotech S.p.A. President, Roberto Siagri, commented “We quickly proceed with the implementation of our strategy, the rationalization of resources and the continued focalisation on the core business of the Group and on its future developments.”
